AN ACT
TO COMPEL SCHOOL CHILDREN TO ATTEND SCHOOL.

[Approved February 25 1873.]

The People of the State of Nevada, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Every parent, guardian, or other person in the State of Nevada, having control and charge of a child, or children, shall be required to send such child or children, between the ages of six and fourteen years, to a public school for a period of six months of which each school year, at least, shall consist of which such child, or children, shall be required to attend, consecutive, unless excused by the Board of School Trustees from such attendance, by the Board of School Trustees, or the guardians reside, upon the being shown to the satisfaction that the bodily or mental condition of such child, or children, has been such as to prevent such child or children from attending school, or application to study, for the period of such absence, or for the period of such absence, or for such child, or children, in such branches as are usually taught in the primary branches of learning taught in the primary school; provided, in a public school shall not be taught for the period of six months, or more, during the period of six months, by the nearest justice of the peace, or by any person within the said district, of the said child, or children, shall not be liable to the provisions of this act.

Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of the Board of School Trustees of each school district of the State of Nevada, to cause to be kept in each year in each year to furnish the public school taught in such district, with a list of the names of the children, between the ages of six and fourteen years, who shall be taken from the rolls of each school month, hereafter, and shall be the duty of the principal of each school to be the duty to report to the Board of School Trustees of each district, the names of all children attending school during the said school month; when, if it shall appear at the meeting of four of the said Board of School Trustees, that, within the said month, or other person having charge or control of such child, or children, shall have failed to comply with the provisions of this act, the Board shall cause demand to be made upon the guardian, or other person, for the amount of such demand, and, if the guardian, or other person, refuse to pay the same within five days of the commencement of such demand, the Board shall commence proceedings, for the recovery of the fine so prescribed, before any Justice of the Peace in the township in which the school district is located; or, if there shall be no Justice of the Peace therein, then before the nearest Justice of the Peace.

Sec. 3. Any parent, guardian or other person, having control or charge of any child, or children, failing to comply with the provisions of this act, shall be liable to a fine not less than fifty dollars, nor more than one hundred dollars for the first offense, nor less than one hundred dollars, nor more than two hundred dollars, in the second and each subsequent offense, local and the costs of collection.

Section 4. The Board of School Trustees of each school district in this State that the parent, or guardian, or other person, having control or charge of any child, or children, shall be liable to a fine not less than fifty dollars, nor more than one hundred dollars, for the first offense, nor less than one hundred dollars, nor more than two hundred dollars, in the second and each subsequent offense, local and the costs of collection.

Section 5. The Board of School Trustees of each school district in this State that the parent, or guardian, or other person, having control or charge of any child, or children, shall be liable to a fine not less than fifty dollars, nor more than one hundred dollars, for the first offense, nor less than one hundred dollars, nor more than two hundred dollars, in the second and each subsequent offense, local and the costs of collection.

Section 6. The Board of School Trustees of each school district in this State that the parent, or guardian, or other person, having control or charge of any child, or children, shall be liable to a fine not less than fifty dollars, nor more than one hundred dollars, for the first offense, nor less than one hundred dollars, nor more than two hundred dollars, in the second and each subsequent offense, local and the costs of collection.

Notice! Notice! Notice!

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT ON THE 15th day of January, A. D. 1876, at Post Office Station, in Iron County, Utah, I was forced under threat of instant death, by armed men, amongst whom were Idaho Bill,
Kate Hanson, A. Winn, John Clark, Ed
Shanks and old man Marder, to sign a note
one Thousand Dollars, payable one day after date, to Kate Hanson, for value received. This note was dated January 15th, 1876, and was payable one day after date. The note was given without any consideration whatever, but was given solely to save myself from instant death. I was not then and am not now in a position to aid Hanson in any sum of money whatever. I will not pay the note, and I warn all persons against purchasing the same as it was given without consideration and debt to save my life.

THE ROSICRUCIAN WERE A RACE OF Philosophers who flourished in Germany during the seventeenth century, and prosecuted profound researches into Natural Science and Occult Philosophy, and sought to discover the

ELIXIR OF LIFE.

Although some superstition may have been developed among them and other Alchemists in search for the Elixir Vitæ, yet there is scientific truth at the basis of their knowledge of Alchemy and Astrology. They were impressed with the properties of

and found dynamic and psychologic forces in the extract of certain plants.
